NINKASI'S JAMIE FLOYD WITH 21ST AMENDMENT'S SHAUN O'SULLIVAN AND NICO FRECCIA AT A SECRET CAMP IN THE SIERRAS

21st Amendment and Ninkasi Unite to Brew Beer for the World

In a surprising turn of events, rival superpowers have joined forces to bring a beer of might to the world. According to top-secret documents, recently unclassified, brewmasters for 21st Amendment in California and Ninkasi in Oregon began their brewing careers together many years ago. Leaders from the two breweries reunited recently at a secret camp in the Sierras to devise their master plan. "We are more alike than we are different," said 21st Amendment's Shaun O'Sullivan. "We must unite in our common cause," added Ninkasi's Jamie Floyd. The resulting collaboration, an ale brewed with California dates, an aggressive arsenal of all-Northwest hops and an unmistakable aroma of victory, deals a unified blow to unoriginal beers around the world.
